Prof. Dr. Björn Nashan
President
Deutsche Transplantationsgesellschaft

Dear Prof. Nashan:

It is with great pleasure that we welcome the Deutsche Transplantationsgesellschaft (DTG) as a National Affiliated Society of The Transplantation Society (TTS). We believe that this partnership will be mutually rewarding to both Societies and look forward to collaborating on various projects and initiatives.

TTS currently has more than 6000 members, representing 97 countries around the world. A vital part of our organization is national affiliated societies like yours, an organization that shares our mission in furthering the scientific, clinical and ethical practices of transplantation. We would like to encourage the entire membership of DTG to join in TTS activities and meetings, and wish to remind you that affiliated members are entitled to the same benefits as regular TTS members. I enclose a list of these benefits, which you may want to distribute to DTG members.

Alexandra Murphy, our Membership Coordinator will contact you to help DTG members become TTS members.

We look forward to a fruitful affiliation.

Sincerely,

Francis L. Delmonico
